Guildford Choral Society
St. Catherine's School Middle Chamber Choir

Guildford Choral Society recorded the works in the Cadogan Hall, London earlier this year when they were joined by the Middle Chamber Choir from St Catherine's School, Bramley and accompanied by the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. The conductor was GCS's Musical Director, Hilary Davan Wetton.

Vaughan Williams's works have a special resonance for Surrey music lovers as he lived at Leith Hill and the Surrey Hills were a source of inspiration for him. In Hodie, he creates two wonderful new carols as the Christmas story unfolds, while the Fantasia uses traditional carols. Both works stress the concept of peace among men – which never ceases to be a highly relevant, if elusive, aspiration.
